Perinatal Support Skills & Group Facilitation workshop Now in a convenient online format!

Led by our experienced facilitators, this training will benefit health care providers, support workers and community members who have contact with pregnant and/or postpartum mothers of young children.

Mondays 7 to 8 pm PST, October 23 to December 11, 2017

no training November 13*

Topics will include:

- What is postpartum depression? anxiety? a difficult adjustment?
- Risk factors for PPD/A
- The role of motherhood myths
- New parenthood's impact on relationships
- Risk management, intake and assessment
- Individual support skills and techniques
- Group facilitation skills and techniques

This training will take place in an interactive webinar format, and will make use of videos, exercises and real-time class discussions. Some out-of-class work, including viewing videos and participating in online discussion in a private Facebook group, will be required to prepare for each session. (Approx. one hour per week).

Technical requirements: To participate you must have access to an internet-enabled device, preferably with a webcam or microphone, which has a browser and can view videos and .pdf files.

Tuition: $300/participant

Class size is limited. Please register soon as we anticipate filling up!
Pay by cheque using the form on the second page, or pay online at the link below. For more information, please email training@postpartum.org.

Our mission is to end the isolation and distress experienced by many women and their families with the profound life change that accompanies the birth or adoption of a child.
